Church Outside the Walls

It seems that COVID could have built barriers to fellowship, faith sharing and prayer, but the Open Door Class and Wednesday Night Small Group experienced new ways to practice these disciplines over the last year. It started with a church member offering to fund a zoom account so the class could meet each Sunday. The availability of technology not only allowed the class to meet without limits, but opened the door to a Wednesday bible study as well. The beauty of remote participation has also allowed for Open Door members and bible study participants to invite their friends and family to join. While many have experienced Zoom fatigue, this has still been an avenue for faith-building for others. Each week, participants join in from wherever they are: Atlanta, Columbia, Sunset Beach, Charlottesville and other locations in Virginia, Irmo, Lake Murray, Little Mountain, Edisto Island, the Myrtle Beach area, New Jersey, and Waxahachie, TX. We've learned the power of invitation — as most of the participants were invited by other participants to join in.

We ask how God is at work in isolation, and then we marvel at how faithful participation in study creates new friendships, holds up one another in prayer, and sustains our faith while we have waited to return to church. We sit back in wonder at the new and mysterious ways our faith binds us together when we have to stay apart, and we give thanks for how the spirit has worked in us and through us this past year.

As per new WSUMC guidelines, we can hold up to 17 persons in the class, so if you want to come in real life, there will likely be room for you. Others please continue to join us via Zoom. All are welcome, and if interested in joining us, contact Jim Lane at jlane@columbiasc.edu for the link.

- YASS, Paul Harmon, and John Harper: will be continuing our study of the book of Acts on May 30. We will be discussing Chapters 6 and 7. There will also be a virtual class still discussing Acts for those who feel more comfortable on Zoom. For questions or to get a Zoom invitation, please email aflippert@umcsc.org.
- WSUMC Youth Class: Sunday, May 23rd via Zoom – Disappointment. Matthew 11:1-6. John the Baptist's moment of doubt can teach us a few lessons about how to deal with disappointment. Beginning on May 30, all Sunday School meetings will be offered in person or on Zoom at 10:00 am. To participate, please email Mackin Wall at mackin@wsmethodist.org.

The Joy Class is all smiles about coming back to in-person Sunday School!

Unsolicited Praise for WSUMC

Last week, Reverend Parrish received a letter, along with a donation from a local individual who expressed her gratitude for our continued support of racial justice in our community. Our Black Lives Matter banner on the Bull Street side of the church was the catalyst for this letter. We have edited parts of the letter in order to keep the anonymity of the individual, who is not a member of the church.

To All Whom It May Concern:

My name is _____. I am a native of Columbia, SC. This is my first time seeing a church boldly denounce RACISM via the public [banner].

I am in awe and excitement. This state is full of racism and hatred of all kinds. I have experienced huge amounts of racism and hatred career-wise and personally.

I was amazed to see a church declare this without rhetoric, due to the "good-ol-boy" system, of far otherwise.

Thank you and continue in love.

"So often we hear criticism of the church's witness against social injustice. This letter confirms that our witness in public ways is making a positive impact," said Reverend Patricia Parrish. "We are all aware that our sign reading "All Lives Can't Matter Until Black Lives Matter" was recently vandalized. Since then, I stopped someone in broad daylight who was attempting to take it down. The world does not always recognize the evil of racism and her offspring, racial injustice. As people of God we are called to resist evil, injustice and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves. Let us continue our mission of working to end racism in hope," she said.
