

Litany of Remembrance for All Saints Sunday 2021

We remember the great ancestors of our faith, from Abraham and Sarah, to Paul and Phoebe:

Ancestors of the faith, we remember you.

We remember the prophets and priests, the ministers and teachers who have taught us the way of God:

Teachers of the faith, we remember you.

We remember our grandparents and parents, aunts and uncles, those who have gone before us in our lifetime:

Family of our faith, we remember you.

We lift up the memories of children and grandchildren, brothers and sisters, husbands and wives and parents whose lives ended too soon:

Those close in our heart, we remember you.

We lift up to You, O God, the names of those we have lost from our lives this year, knowing that they are with You and in our hearts forever. As we read these names, a bell will toll, a candle will be lit and a single white rose will be added to our floral cross as we pause after every name to remember, pray, and give thanks for their life.
