New Easter Celebrations Held at WSUMC

Easter festivities at Washington Street were varied, and well attended after a long period of absence from celebrating the Easter holidays in person.

Maundy Thursday's In the Upper Room, featured 12 volunteer disciples, and Jesus from WSUMC and the community was well attended with around 60 people watching the presentation that featured Becky Shirley, Cody Lidge, and Pete Ligget as the narrators; local actor, Kashaad Kraus as Jesus; and a host of wonderful disciples including Jay Parmley, Alan-Jon Zupan, Tommy Betenbaugh, Joe Graham, Chris Peterson, Mackin Wall, Alston Lippert, Charles Garren, Richard Shirley, Chip Williams, Sam Waldrep, and Lee Smith. The production was directed by Jane Peterson. Louis Shierer accompanied Cody Lidge as soloist during the ceremony prior to the dramatic presentation. Susan Caskey acted as stage manager as well as heading up the costume search with Sam Waldrep. Lynn Shirley lent his talents for sound, and last, but certainly not least, our Jerry Sumpter did all the heavy lifting getting our set ready for the performance.

On Good Friday, Reverend Becky and Reverend Alston, with the help of Nicholas Todd Shumate, Director of Music, presented a dramatic service in the chapel. "The Stations of the Cross" was a dark, reflective production about the different "stations" Jesus went through on his journey to his crucifixion on the cross. Various chorus members, along with soloists Bob Evans, and Maria Beery performed the music for the evening.

We hope you enjoy looking at some of the images captured during these performances.

Don't Forget Your Mothers or Epworth Children's Home Next Sunday!

Next week is Mother's Day. We will buy flowers, call the mothers in our lives, and remember those mothers who have impacted our lives in the past. Most of the children served by Epworth Children's Home will not be celebrating Mother's Day with their birth mothers. Instead, they will be surrounded by loving staff, and foster parents who walk with them daily to provide spiritual, educational, emotional, and physical support. Consider what God is calling you to give to support our church's ministry to the children in South Carolina. Your generous contribution to our church's ministry enables transformation to happen for the children who call Epworth home. Epworth does not receive apportionments from the United Methodist Conference. This offering is our opportunity to support this vital ministry. For more information about Epworth Children's Home, visit them online at www.epworthchildrenshome.org. You may also donate through your Realm Connect account, or online at wsmethodist.org/giving.

There is Still Time to Join Us for These Small Groups...

Sunday School Updates

• The Aldersgate Class: The class has embarked on a new study series by Reverend Chris Hodges. In this five-session video Bible study, bestselling author and pastor Chris Hodges explores the story of the prophet Elijah to reveal how everyone is susceptible to depression. Even when we're walking closely with God, we can still stumble and get lost in the wilderness of tangled emotions. But Elijah's story reveals that we don't have to stay there! We serve a God who meets us in the darkness. Drawing on his trademark blend of Bible-based wisdom, practical application, and personal vulnerability, Pastor Hodges will help you examine the causes of depression, the factors contribute to it, and will offer you a Biblical approach to wellness—mind, body, and soul. Class begins shortly after 10:00 am before the 11:00 am worship service on the second floor of the church building. Should you have any questions, please call David A. Anderson (mobile 803-318-8821) or danderson@richardsonplowden.com.

• The Dawsey Class: This Sunday, May 1, we will continue our study of Freeing Jesus by Diana Butler Bass. Tom Summers will lead a discussion of Chapter 3, Savior. Next Sunday, May 8, Grant Jackson will teach Chapter 4, Lord. The class will meet by FreeConferenceCall. Class members should call in before 9:15 a.m. but not before 9:05 a.m. The call-in number is 701-802-5115. The access code is 7252934. For more information about the class, contact the class president, Mary Slade, at marydslade4@gmail.com.

• The Grace Class: on May 1, Lynn Shirley will lead a listening session of a Jim Wallis presentation to the Anderson Forum of Progressive Theology with group discussion following. On May 8, Jeffrey and Mandy Collins will lead the group on getting to know them, and their reflections on faith journeys. For future class information check the website at wsmethodist.org/sunday-school. Join in person or contact Jim Lane at jlane@columbiasec.edu for the Zoom link to gather Sunday mornings at 9:45 am for fellowship and at 10:00 am for spiritual reflection.

• The Joy Class: The lessons are being led by various members and focused on how we can use this season to further our faith journey. Everyone is welcome to join us as we learn together. If you are interested, please contact Lee Haynes at lelandhaynesjr@gmail.com or Sylvia Stevens at sylviasaundersstevens@gmail.com for more information.

• Open Door Class: will be studying the seven "I Am" statements Jesus made in the book of John over the next several weeks. Visitors are always welcome. The class meets both in-person and via Zoom each week. For Zoom link information, contact Ann Jessup at jessup.ann@gmail.com.

• The Paul Harmon Class: The class will meet in the Traxler room. Rev. Alston will be "leading a discussion of the Psalms for the next few weeks. If you have questions, please contact Suzanne Joye at sjoye@sc.rr.com." • John Harper Class: is studying the Gospels using Cokesbury Adult Sunday School materials. All are welcome. Contact Tracy Powers at tjpowers65@gmail.com.

• WSUMC Youth Class: For the month of May, the youth will be reading and discussing chapters from The Irresistible Revolution by Shane Claiborne and how it relates to scripture and our lives today. For more information, contact Mackin Wall at mackin@wsmethodist.org.

Pot Luck Lunch is Back for Graduate Sunday!

Mark your calendars for Sunday, June 5 as we gather together for the first time since 2020 in Threath Hall for a pot-luck lunch while we celebrate our 2022 graduates!

We are asking for images of your grad to include in a presentation, as well as in an upcoming issue of The Connection. Please send in seven images of your grad as a baby through high school and/or college for us to use.

Please email the images to jane@wsmethodist.org, or you may drop a photo by the office. Make sure your name is on the photo so we can return it to you once it is scanned!

Watch The Connection, and your Eblasts for more information on this upcoming celebration!

SATURDAY, APRIL 30!

As we continue our journey of repentance and healing, we invite you to join Rev. Dr. Melanie Dobson and Rev. Alston Lippert on a tour of the Modjeska Simkins House in Columbia on Saturday, April 30 at 10:00 am.

This will be an experience of pilgrimage, of prayer, and a journey through the life of Modjeska Simkins, a civil rights icon in SC. After the tour, there will be a time for discussion and reflection.

WSUMC's Active Faith donated water bottles to Columbia College Students.
