The WSUMC Fall Festival Returns!

The WSUMC Fall Festival is set for Oct. 29, from 4:00-6:00 pm in the parking lot of the church. Last year, we saw record numbers of participants of around 300! We are hoping to meet that number again this year.

Mackin Wall has been working hard over the past few months, setting up what promises to be a fabulous Fall Festival. We will have the Trunk or Treat contest again and hope that we have even more participants this year. We will award prizes to the top three participants in the Trunk or Treat contest. If you would like to participate, please email Mackin at mackin@wsmethodist.org. The deadline to register to participate is Friday, Oct. 28 at noon. We hope to have 20-30 participants, so sign up today!

There will be a costume contest that will be broken down into age groups for our children. Ages 0-3; ages 4-6; ages 7-9; and ages 10-12. Prizes will be awarded, so make plans to tell all of your friends and neighbors!

Other activities include an inflatable slide, popcorn and cotton candy station, dunking booth, a cake walk, face painting, balloon artist, a pumpkin craft station, games, and more!

DONATIONS NEEDED!

If you were a part of the festivities last year, you may remember that we ran out of candy, so this year we are seeking donations of candy for our event-goers. Please drop off donations of individually packaged or wrapped candy no later than Friday, Oct. 28 in the Mission Garden area in the back hallway.

We also need donations of baked goods for the cake walk. Please portion out cakes and pies into halves; brownies and cookies should be six to a package. This will stretch out the number of goodies we have for participants as this was a popular game last year.

Somebody is looking for you!
Can they find you?

We are trying to build our online directory so our members can find each other! Privacy restrictions are preventing congregants from finding each other for sending communications, cards, notes, etc.

NOTE: ON NOVEMBER 1ST, WE WILL ACTIVATE ALL ACTIVE MEMBERS' INFORMATION IN REALM®. IF YOU DO NOT WANT YOUR INFORMATION TO BE ACCESSIBLE TO OTHER MEMBERS, YOU MUST LET US KNOW NO LATER THAN OCTOBER 24! PLEASE EMAIL CHRISTINE (christine@wsmethodist.org) IF YOU DO NOT WANT TO BE LISTED!

Getting to Know—Christine Taylor

By Fran Zupan

Christine Taylor says her new job at Washington Street is an adventure that will evolve as she works with members of the congregation to discern where our church should go next.

A fourth-year student at Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary in Columbia, Christine said she was attracted to the position—Director of Congregational & Volunteer Engagement—because she “really liked the idea of doing new things.”

On the job since September 1, Christine sees her role as fostering opportunities for relationships and empowering lay leaders in the congregation. She has been attending most group meetings, including Sunday school classes, to get a feel for what is going on and to meet people.

She also has been working on a catalog of Sunday school materials, such as DVDs, so classes can see what resources the church already has.

Last year, Christine was the vicar, or intern, at Mt. Tabor Lutheran Church in West Columbia.

She grew up in Davenport, IA, one of the Quad Cities of Iowa and Illinois. Her mother is an elementary math teacher, and her father is a psychology professor at Augustana College, a Lutheran school in Rock Island, IL. An older brother is a data analyst for General Mills in Minneapolis, and her younger sister is a student at Augustana College.

Christine graduated from Augustana College with a degree in religion and a minor in political science. At first, her major was undeclared, but when she was required to take a religion class, she really liked it. “It kinda clicked,” she said.

She, her classmates, and their professor traveled as a group and spent a trimester in East Asia—Japan, Taiwan, Hong Kong, and Mainland China. They also spent a trimester at Holden Village, a year-round Lutheran retreat center in the wilderness of Washington state.

Christine worked for three summers during college at the Sky Ranch Lutheran Camp, west of Fort Collins, CO. It was an experience that influenced her more than any other.

“It was a chance to live and work and worship in community,” she said. “It was the first place where I regularly preached and led Bible studies.” The camp held a worship service every day for whoever was there – little kids, teens, parents, and staff.

The camp also allowed Christine to indulge her love of the outdoors. She led hikes, took campers white-water rafting on the Poudre River, and encouraged them as they experienced a ropes course.

During her senior year in college, Christine began to consider going to seminary. She felt called to “lead and love God’s people.” And, she had the support of her church, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

She felt like she needed to experience something far from home.

“I was young, unmarried, and needed to go on an adventure,” she said. She visited the Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary, and she “felt like it is a community that would take care of me far from home.”

Christine met her future husband Isaac on the first day of seminary as they moved into neighboring apartments. He also was a first-year student so they were in the same classes. Incidentally, Alston Lippert, who would become an associate pastor at Washington Street, was their classmate.

Christine and Isaac started dating right away, and in October 2021, they married on a farm outside of Knoxville, TN, where he is from.

This year, Isaac is the vicar at St. David Lutheran Church, located just off U.S. Highway 1, between West Columbia and Lexington. After graduation, he hopes to become a chaplain in the U.S. Army.

The Army’s Chaplain School is located at Fort Jackson, and the process to become an Army chaplain requires three years of congregational work.

“We don’t know if we’ll get to stay (in Columbia) or if we’ll be sent elsewhere,” Christine said.

Christine loves to hike and be outdoors. She loves to read and she reads many genres – historical fiction, suspenseful mysteries and memoirs. A recent book is All Who are Weary: Easing the Burden on the Walk with Mental Illness by Emmy Kegler.

Asked about a typical day at Washington Street, Christine notes that she spends most of her time brainstorming with staff and congregants about things they would like to plan and then planning those things.

“I don’t know that I’ve had a ‘typical day’ since I started here,” she said. “That is good. Every day is something new.”

You can reach Christine at christine@wsmethodist.org, or at 803-256-2417, ext. 134.

SAFE SANCTUARY

Safe Sanctuary training will be held on Wednesday, November 2nd from 5:30 - 6:30 pm on Zoom. If you are interested in working with our little ones, you must have taken this training session. For more information, contact Mackin at mackin@wsmethodist.org.

Sunday School Updates

• The Aldersgate Class: The class continues its eight-session Study Guide and Streaming Video study on the book of Psalms. This study includes group discussion questions, video outlines, and notes, independent study, illuminated manuscript activities, and an in-depth breakdown of specific Psalms. Our class meets in the Aldersgate Class at 10:00 am with coffee and a pastry. If you have any questions, please call David A. Anderson at 803-318-8821 or email him at DAAnderson@richardsonplowden.com.

• The Dawsey Class: This Sunday, Oct. 2, Hunter Rentz will lead the class on Chapter 7: "Reckoning: Toward Responsibility and Repair & Afterword" in Robert P Jones, White Too Long. On Oct. 9, Carl Evans will discuss the Introduction and Chapter 1 of Jill Levine's Signs and Wonders: A Beginners Guide to the Miracles of Jesus, "Take Up Your Pallet and Walk: On the Role of Caregivers (Mark 2:1-12). Class members who join from home use FreeConferenceCall. Class members should call in between 9:50 and 10:00 am. The call-in number is (701) 802-5115. The access code is 7252934. For more information about the class, contact the class president Mary Slade at marydslade4@gmail.com.

• The Grace Class: On Sunday, Oct. 2, Grace Class we will continue the 6-week series on the Four Gospels, but this isn't your ordinary Gospel study. Lynn Shirley will lead this week's lesson, "Receiving Gifts: Resting in John's Glorious Garden Session." On Oct. 9, Melanie Dobson will lead "Maturing Through Service: Walking Luke's Road of Riches." Join in person or contact Jim Lane at jlane@columbiasec.edu for the Zoom link to gather Sunday mornings at 9:45 am for fellowship and at 10:00 am for spiritual reflection.

• The Joy Class: The lessons are being led by various members and focused on how we can use this season to further our faith journey. Everyone is welcome to join us as we learn together. If you are interested, please contact Lee Haynes at lelandhaynesjr@gmail.com or Sylvia Stevens at sylviasaundersstevens@gmail.com for more information.

• The Open Door Class: The class is continuing its study of New Testament Stories from the Backside by J. Ellsworth Kalas. Visitors are always welcome! The class meets both in-person and via Zoom each week. For Zoom link information, contact Ann Jessup at jessup.ann@gmail.com.

• The Paul Harmon Class: On Sunday, October 2nd, we will complete our study of Borg's Meeting Jesus Again for the First Time. On the October 9th, we will meet in the church library. We hope to discover some ideas for future studies. All are welcome. If you have questions, please contact Suzanne Joye at sjoye@sc.rr.com.

• The John Harper Class: The John Harper class discusses lessons from Adult Bible Studies published by Cokesbury. October will focus on the theme of "Justice" with lessons on "Sharing with the Vulnerable" from James and Exodus, "Gifts of the Widows" from Kings and Luke, "Blinded by the Truth" from John, "Justice for the Persistent" from Luke and "Hospitality without Boundaries" from Ezekiel. For more information, contact Tracy Powers at tipowers65@gmail.com or meet with us in the classroom on the first floor by the elevator.

• The WSUMC Youth Class: For the entire month of October, the youth will be reading and analyzing the book Walk With Jesus by Henri Nouwen. We will be going through "Stations of the Cross" to discover how Jesus lived his life and remained hopeful through His suffering. For more information, contact Mackin Wall at mackin@wsmethodist.org.

The topic of surveys on Sunday School books/film lessons has come up. If you are interested in handing out lesson surveys in your class, please contact Jane at jane@wsmethodist.org and we will develop one.

Pride Festival Weekend

Once again, members of WSUMC will take part in the Pride Festival, October 14-15 in downtown Columbia. Last year was so much fun, we are doing it again. This is a wonderful opportunity for us to inform people about Washington Street UMC, and how we truly stand by the phrase, "Open hearts. Open minds. Open doors." We are looking for volunteers to help us staff the WSUMC booth during the festival on Saturday from noon to 5:00 pm. You can sign up online by scanning the QR code, or by emailing Jane Peterson at jane@wsmethodist.org. All are welcome to join us on Friday evening for the Pride Parade. We will meet prior to the parade for some food and fellowship at The Grand starting at 5:00 pm. The parade begins at 7:30 pm.

To kick off the weekend, WSUMC is hosting a 7:00 pm Service of Repentance and Healing for the Harm Inflicted on LGBTQIA Individuals in the sanctuary. Testimonies from WSUMC members, as well as members of Reformation Lutheran Church will be the highlight of this service. This promises to be a very moving worship experience. Please share the date with friends and neighbors. For more information, contact Nancy Whittle at ncwhittle@aol.com.

WSUMC Sends Letter to The Methodist Advocate

This week, a letter was sent from several WSUMC members to The Methodist Advocate in regards to WSUMC's stance on Social Justice and Equality for all. Elegantly crafted by Cindy Wilcox, we are sharing the contents of this letter with our congregation:

A letter from Washington Street UMC

Washington Street UMC Stands for Social Justice & Equality for All

If you have attended Washington Street United Methodist Church (WSUMC), you have seen this statement on the front of its bulletin:

The congregation of Washington Street UMC praises and serves God from the heart of the city in ways that reach our neighbors near and far. We welcome and affirm all who seek the love and mercy of Christ regardless of race, creed, age, gender, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, or economic status. We honor traditions as rooted in our history, our expression of worship, and our respect for theological curiosity. We nonetheless see vital change and ongoing renewal as essential for spiritual growth.

WSUMC has a long history of social justice activism. This focus on social justice has included feeding its neighbors in its soup cellar. Many church partners have helped us serve our neighbors over the years.

More recently, as part of its Engaging God's World Team, WSUMC has taken intentional steps to expand from that mission and to respond to current events.

Following the Methodist Church General Conference vote to continue its discriminatory treatment of LGBTQIA+ individuals, WSUMC completed a church-wide discernment process which resulted in a unanimous vote by the church council to join the Reconciling Ministry Network which is committed to achieving full inclusion for LGBTQIA+ individuals in the church. The Reconciling Next Team was formed and has implemented a number of initiatives, including church participation in Pride Weekend, conducting an LGBTQIA+ intergenerational dialogue (with 3 other churches), offering a Service of Repentance and Healing for LGBTQIA+ people on October 13 along with the creation of SAFE Space (an affirming gathering place during the Sunday School hour, and co-hosting Friday Unwind (an online social gathering) with Reformation Lutheran Church.

Following the murder of George Floyd, the Racial Justice Action Team was formed and undertook a discernment process to educate its members on the many facets of racial injustice and the sin of white supremacy. This team has implemented a number of initiatives including a comprehensive library of resources, bias training, book group discussions, voter registration, church participation in Walk for Life to reduce gun violence, and co-hosting (with Journey UMC) a Service of Repentance and Healing acknowledging the sins of racism.

As part of sharing this work with the community, WSUMC placed banners on its Bull Street fence. These banners have shown our beliefs that Black Lives Matter, that All Are Welcome in the church, and that we should work to Reduce Gun violence. If you drive down Bull Street, you may have seen these banners but more likely you have not. Sadly all of these banners have been cut down and stolen. WSUMC is currently considering new, more secure, options for banner placement. However, whether we have a banner or not, we want the community to know that all are welcome and that our work is not deterred.

Join us as we continue to work toward full inclusion in the church, racial justice, and service to our community.

Recent events:

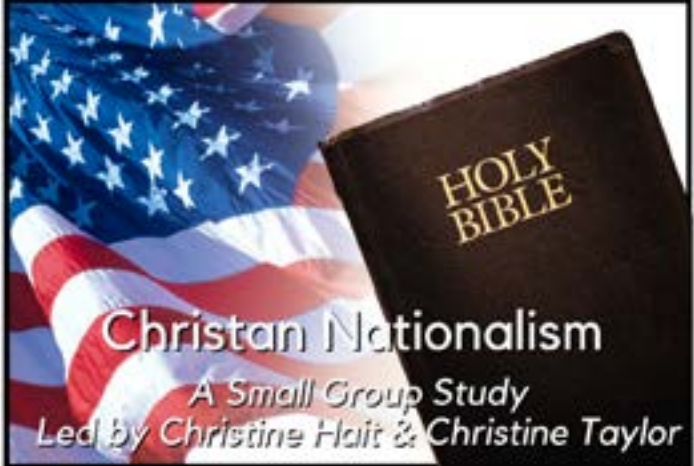

9/25 MUSIC FOR THE SPIRIT service featuring music of Shrimp City Slim and topic "Hearing Other Voices"; 12:00 pm
10/13 SERVICE OF REPENTANCE AND HEALING for harm inflicted to LGBTQIA+ persons by the church; 6:00-7:00 pm
10/14 Participate in the PRIDE Parade

RJAT Hosts SC63 Civil Rights Exhibit

The Racial Justice Action Team is pleased to invite you to the SC63 Presentation and Exhibit on Sunday, November 13 from 5:00-7:00 pm in Threatt Hall, with a taco bar supper provided. We welcome staff from the University of South Carolina Center for Civil Rights History and Research who will conduct the presentation and exhibit. This is a great opportunity to learn about and discuss some of the "defining moments" of the Civil Rights Movement that occurred on Main St. in downtown Columbia. We look forward to seeing you on Nov. 13, and please invite your friends and neighbors to join us for this event.

- 5-5:30: View exhibit with staff from the center and church members present as guides
- 5:30-6:00: Enjoy a taco bar supper, and continue viewing exhibit
- 6:00-7:00: SC63 Civil Rights presentation with Q&A

About SC 63

Since 2012, Columbia SC 63: Our Story Matters has successfully built a platform for the world to learn the stories of the brave men and women who participated in South Carolina's march toward freedom. Learn more at columbiasc63.com.
