

The Votes are In... 2024 Charge Conference Results

On Sunday, Oct. 4, Charge Conference was held in Christ Chapel. Officers and committee chairs were elected. The terms of service for new leaders will begin on January 1, 2024.

"I want to personally thank each of you for your willingness to serve — those who are willing to continue serving for another year or more and those who will be starting your service on the council in 2024. I look forward to continued ministry with each of you and to seeing the great things God has in store for all of us as we join hearts and hands together in fulfilling our calling to make disciples for the transformation of the world," said Rev. Becky.

2023 Fall Festival is Coming!

Ghouls, goblins, and great volunteers should sign up to help out with our upcoming Fall Festival! The Festival and Trunk or Treat will be Sunday, October 29th from 4:00 to 6:00pm. We will have a bounce house, pumpkin carving table, games and prizes, tables and trunks for trunk or treat, plus a few surprises! Here are some ways you can volunteer:

1. Decorate your trunk! Arrive at 3:30 p.m. to set up your trunk and help hand out candy in the parking lot.
2. Donate candy! We hope to have a big turn out, so extra candy is needed. You can drop off candy donations in the mission garden or in Sarah-Kate's office.
3. Help out with the pumpkin and prize tables.
4. Spread the word!

The Fall Festival is a great event for all ages, so be sure to spread the word to neighbors and friends about the event. For questions or to sign up to help, reach out to Sarah-Kate at sarahkate@wsmethodist.org. Thanks to all the great volunteers!

Washington Street to Participate in Pride Weekend

Join members of WSUMC as we take part in the Pride Festival, October 20-21 in downtown Columbia. As in years past, we will march in the Pride Parade on Friday evening, as well as have a booth at the festival on Saturday from noon to 6:00 p.m. All are welcome to join us on Friday evening for the Pride Parade which will kick off at dusk. We will meet prior to the parade for some food and fellowship at The Woody, located at 1649 Main St., starting at 5:00 p.m.

As part of the celebratory weekend, Ebenezer Lutheran Church and Washington Street United Methodist Church will host an interdenominational "Celebration of Diversity" Service to kick off Pride Weekend. The service will be held on October 19th at 6:00 p.m. in the chapel at Ebenezer Lutheran Church, 1301 Richland Street. Come join us as we celebrate God's diverse creation.

Participating in this event gives WSUMC a wonderful opportunity to inform people about Washington Street UMC, and how we truly stand by the phrase, "Open hearts. Open minds. Open doors."

Please share the date with friends and neighbors. For more information, contact Jim Lane at jlane@columbiasc.edu.

Sing-Along Messiah Is Back!

We are very excited to announce that the annual choral production of the Sing-Along Messiah will return on Monday, December 11, at 7:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary. Reservations for the production will open on Nov. 1 through Eventbrite. The link to reserve seats will also be available on the WSUMC website at wsmethodist.org/sam.

This is the only sing-along version of Handel's Messiah in the Midlands, the event is free and open to the public. Reservations are highly recommended as seating is limited. Reservations will hold a seat; however, guests must arrive no later than 6:50 p.m. to guarantee a seat. Seating will be granted to those on any waitlist after 6:50 p.m. Seating is general, and good seats will go quickly, so do arrive early. Parking is available in the Bull Street parking lot as well as in surrounding street and bank parking lots.

The Sing-Along Messiah was founded in 2002 by Arletta Raley on the principle that everyone in the metropolitan Columbia area, and anyone willing to travel to Columbia, should have an opportunity to sing some part of Handel's Messiah at least once a year. The Sing-Along Messiah was also established on the heartfelt belief that no Christmas season is ever truly complete without it. Messiah is perhaps the best-known and most popular sacred oratorio ever written. In its entirety, it is comprised of 53 individual selections presented as orchestral symphonies, choruses, recitatives, and arias, divided into three sections. The Sing-Along Messiah includes all of Section 1 and "Hallelujah" from Section 2.

Until the Covid breakout in 2020, WSUMC had hosted the Sing-Along Messiah each year since 2002. The Sing-Along Messiah has become a highly-anticipated holiday tradition in the Midlands. Each year the production has been held, the sanctuary has filled to capacity and the pre-performance buzz of anticipation could be felt by the participants. Many regular participants have said that their Christmas season is not the same without it.

The service lasts approximately an hour. The event will feature an orchestra of talented local musicians through the dedication and hard work of Columbia's own Dick Goodwin. Also featured is a core choir to lead the singing of the choruses. Singers in the core choir have historically represented many local choirs and groups.

We are currently accepting donations to help us keep our event free and open to the public. Our goal this year is $15,000 and we are nearly there. You may donate to Sing Along Messiah by visiting the website at wsmethodist.org/giving and writing SAM in the memo line. Or you may write a check and send it to the attention of Robbie Douglas at the church. Please write SAM in the memo line there as well.

Nearby parking, with directional signage, will be readily available. Scores are available for loan as you enter the Narthex.

The program will again be led by long-time conductor Dr. Lillian Quackenbush. Featured soloists include Mezzo

Soprano Rachel Calloway; Soprano, Ashley Emerson; Tenor Dominic Armstrong; and Bass-Baritone Craig Price.

Dr. Lillian Quackenbush is a retired professor and chair of the Department of Music at Columbia College. Her experience includes numerous performances of Messiah as a chorus member, soloist, and conductor. She has had an extensive career as a vocal performer in musical theater, opera, and oratorio and as a choral director in community and church positions. In 2012, Dr. Quackenbush was awarded the Elizabeth O'Neill Verner Lifetime Achievement Award from the South Carolina Arts Commission, recognizing her outstanding service and achievement in the arts. Dr.

Lillian Quackenbush

Quackenbush was the founder and artistic director of the Sandlapper Singers, a post from which she is now retired. She has also served as interim artistic director of the Palmetto Mastersingers, a men's chorus based out of Columbia. For more information about Sing-Along Messiah, visit the website at wsmethodist.org/sam or contact Catherine Nance at catherine@wsmethodist.org.

Sunday School Updates

• The Aldersgate Class: The Aldersgate Class will be embarking on a study of the 12 apostles based upon the book, The First to Follow, the Apostles of Jesus by John R. Claypool. One of the first things that Jesus did in his ministry was to reach out to 12 individuals and draw them into a circle of close companionship with him. This series is about those 12 apostles, their relationships with Jesus and with each other, and what the dynamics of that community can teach us. Jesus did not wait for people to be perfect in order to call them into the circle of God's love. As we look at those who Jesus called, and consider ourselves as part of that ever-enlarging circle, we gain not only a deeper sense of our own reality but also a deeper sense of how Christ wants to work with us. Come join us for a lively discussion, a cup of coffee, and a pastry. All are welcome! If you have any questions, please call David A. Anderson at 803-318-8821 or email him at danderson@richardsonplowden.com.

• The Dawsey Class: This Sunday, October 15, we will continue our discussion of Why I Left, Why I Stayed: Conversations between an Evangelical Father and His Humanist Son by Tony Compolo and Bart Compolo. Grant Jackson will lead a discussion of Bart: "Godless Goodness: The Foundations of a Secular Morality" and Tony: "And Then What? Why Secularists Can't Face Death." Next Sunday, October 23, Mary Edmonds will teach Bart: "Part of the Bargain: Facing Death the Secular Humanist Way" and Tony: "Not from Nowhere: Why Transcendent Experiences Point to God." Class members who join from home will use FreeConferenceCall and should call in between 9:50 and 10:00 a.m. The call-in number is (701) 802-5115. The access code is 7252934. For more information about the class, contact the class president Caroline Seigler at caroline.seigler@gmail.com.

• The Grace Class: On Sunday, October 15, Vickie and Lisa Voegeli will continue to lead a book discussion of It's Not Supposed to Be This Way by Lysa Terkeurst, president of Proverbs 31 Ministries and New York Times bestselling author. This study ends Oct. 29. Join us in person on the third floor, or contact Jim Lane at jlane@columbiasc.edu for the Zoom link. We gather Sunday mornings at 9:45 am for fellowship, and at 10:00 am for spiritual reflection.

• The John Harper Class: The John Harper class discusses lessons from Adult Bible Studies published by Cokesbury. For more information, contact Tracy Powers at tjpowers65@gmail.com or meet with us in the classroom on the first floor by the elevator.

• The Joy Class: The Joy Class is continuing to partner with Solomon's Porch in a study of Psalms. If interested, please contact Lee Haynes at lelandhaynesjr@gmail.com or Sylvia Stevens at sylviasaudersstevens@gmail.com.

• The Open Door Class: The Open Door is continuing its study of the Bible Project's Torah Series. We will finish Exodus and begin Leviticus over the next two weeks. Visitors are always welcome! The class meets in person on the third floor and via Zoom each week. For Zoom link information, contact Ann Jessup at jessup.ann@gmail.com.

• The Paul Harmon Class: John Adams will be leading our class this month in a discussion of the minor prophets. All are welcome to join us on the third floor. If you have questions, please contact Suzanne Joye at sjoye@sc.rr.com.

• Solomon's Porch: The class is studying of the book of Psalms. Anyone interested is welcome to join in. The class meets on the second floor and is led by Rev. Adrienne Fink. For more information, contact Adrienne at ajhamm@umcsc.org.

Request from the Records and History Committee

The Records and History Committee always appreciates the assistance of members of the congregation who donate materials to the ministry of history at WSUMC. These items might include church-related documents, committee agendas and minutes, photographs, past bulletins and newsletters, books, newspaper articles, art work, special program announcements, artifacts and furnishings of relevance to our church, SC United Methodist Conference publications, and any other artifact with a tie to our church. The church historian and Records and History Committee will reserve the right to assess any donations for retention in our archives and/or for display in our museum and exhibit areas.

This past June our Church Council approved an acquisition and relocation policy designed to establish a more effective management plan for the work of the Records and History Committee. Forms are available in the church office and on the WSUMC website for a congregant's use in arranging a donation or wishing to relocate an existing furnishing. These forms may be accessed from the following:

<https://wsmethodist.org/facility/museum-and-archives/>
<https://wsmethodist.org/facility/forms-and-policies/>

Your support of the ministry of history is much appreciated.
