Mural Dedicated to the Memory of Rick Rowe

by Larry Hembree

What a privilege to be a small part of the festivities surrounding the dedication of the mural "Earth Medicine," created by Tennessee muralist Eric Finley and dedicated to the memory of Washington Street United Methodist member, Rick Rowe. The mural, adorning two sides of Trustus Theatre, located at 520 Lady Street in the Vista in downtown Columbia, was formally dedicated on Tuesday, November 14, at the site. The mural was commissioned by the Vista Neighborhood Association, in collaboration with Trustus, One Columbia for Arts & Culture, and the Vista Guild.

Rowe, who passed in April, was a prolific leader in the Vista where he founded the Vista Neighborhood Association, was the President of the Renaissance Plaza Homeowners' Association, and served on Trustus and Vista Guild Board of Directors, among many other things.

Rick lived his values fully, no compromise. The power of creating community and belonging were at the top of his priority list, his wish list for the world. One section of the mural exhibits a beautiful forest filled with a community of transparent dwellings, a place where people feel connected, protected, safe. Rick was awarded a purple heart for his service in Vietnam, an honor given to service members who have greatly sacrificed themselves. Rick fought to both protect and to preserve freedom through enriching his community, and assuring each individual is afforded basic human rights. He was fair, he listened, he sympathized and empathized. You knew it when you were with him. But he rarely, if ever, touted his own horn. Rick gave such passion and credibility to the power of place.

Researcher and Storyteller Brené Brown says, "True belonging is the spiritual practice of believing in and belonging to yourself so deeply that you can share your most authentic self with the world and find sacredness in both being a part of something and standing alone in the wilderness." This aptly describes the beauty of Rick Rowe. How lucky to have

Sunday School Updates

• The Aldersgate Class: The Aldersgate Class is studying The First to Follow the Apostles of Jesus by John R. Claypool. One of the first things that Jesus did in his ministry was to reach out to 12 individuals and draw them into a circle of close companionship with him. This series is about those 12 apostles, their relationships with Jesus and with each other, and what the dynamics of that community can teach us. Jesus did not wait for people to be perfect in order to call them into the circle of God's love. As we look at those who Jesus called, and consider ourselves as part of that ever-enlarging circle, we gain not only a deeper sense of our own reality but also a deeper sense of how Christ wants to work with us. Come join us for a lively discussion, a cup of coffee, and a pastry. All are welcome! If you have any questions, please call David A. Anderson at 803-318-8821 or email him at danderson@richardsonplowden.com.

• The Dawsey Class: This Sunday, November 26, we will continue our study of Ancient Echoes: Refusing the Fear-Filled, Greed-Driven Toxicity of the Far Right by Walter Brueggemann. Sue Dillon will lead a discussion of Chapter 4: "Public Truth and Private Rumors." Next Sunday, December 3, Jim Seigler will teach Chapter 5: "The Prophet on Profit." Class members who join from home will use FreeConferenceCall and should call in between 9:50 and 10:00 a.m. The call-in number is (701) 802-5115. The access code is 7252934. For more information about the class, contact the class president Caroline Seigler at caroline.seigler@gmail.com.

• The Grace Class: This Sunday, Nov. 26 we will have a devotional and discussion. For Advent the class is starting a "Work of the People" series for Advent entitled Magnifying the Light. On Dec. 3, Becca Stevens will lead the discussion of "A Cup of Longing." Join us in person on the third floor, or contact Jim Lane at jlane@columbiasec.edu for the Zoom link. We gather Sunday mornings at 9:45 am for fellowship, and at 10:00 am for spiritual reflection.

• The John Harper Class: The John Harper class discusses lessons from Adult Bible Studies published by Cokesbury. For more information, contact Tracy Powers at tjpowers65@gmail.com or meet with us in the classroom on the first floor by the elevator.

• The Joy Class: The Joy Class is continuing to partner with Solomon's Porch. If interested, please contact Lee Haynes at lelandhaynesjr@gmail.com or Sylvia Stevens at sylviasaudersstevens@gmail.com.

• The Open Door Class: The Open Door Class's Advent study is "When God Came Down" by James A. Harnish. We will explore the meaning of the incarnation - God with us in human flesh, God's action in the person Jesus. Visitors are always welcome! The class meets in person on the third floor and via Zoom each week. For Zoom link information, contact Ann Jessup at jessup.ann@gmail.com.

• The Paul Harmon Class: The Paul Harmon Class, which focuses on scripture-based theological curiosity and reflection, plans to (1) reflect on our individual faith journeys; (2) discuss the dangers of a literal Christianity for our body politic; (3) review a four-hour PBS series on early Christianity; and (4) explore how fiction and poetry can inform our faith. All the while, we will remain "plugged in" to the Old and New Testaments in keeping with the chapter-a-day format of the Reverend Harmon, our namesake. All are welcome to join us on the third floor. If you have questions, please contact Suzanne Joye at sjoye@sc.rr.com.

• Solomon's Porch: On Nov. 26, we will begin our Advent Study. We will use Advent in Narnia by Heidi Haverkamp to look at Advent through the lens of C.S. Lewis's The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe. The study will include the opportunity to read the story and watch the movie as we move toward Christmas. Anyone interested is welcome to join in. The class meets on the second floor and is led by Rev. Adrienne Fink. For more information, contact Adrienne at ajhamm@umcsc.org.

Washington Street Players Present Calling All Turkeys

The first presentation of the newly formed Washington Street Drama Ministry will take place during the Sunday, November 26 worship service. Calling All Turkeys, a 10-minute original play written and produced by several members of the group. It focuses on the lessons tied to Christ the King Sunday, which is the last day of the Christian calendar, and the day before Advent season begins. WSUMC members Jane Peterson and Larry Hembree lead the group. Hembree says, "What a blessing to be able to highlight some of our gifts (and hidden talents) during church services. He continues, "Our goal is to create interesting, but not too serious, theatre inspired by scripture. And, of course, having fun is also part of the process!" Plans for the coming year are to assist in Lenten and Sunday worship services, produce a cabaret evening fundraiser, and a full-scale production for the Advent season. Anyone interested in participating both onstage and backstage, contact Larry Hembree at larryhembree1@gmail.com. No prior theatre experience is necessary.
