

WASHINGTON STREET

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

January 18, 2026

WELCOME!

We are grateful you are here to worship with us! We are an open community of Christians helping people find and give hope through Jesus Christ - regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, nationality, disability or socioeconomic background. No matter who you are, where you are from, who you love, or what you look like, know that God loves you and YOU BELONG HERE. Please take a moment to help us get to know you by completing the blue tear-off section of this bulletin and placing it in the offering plate during the service.

We have different gifts that are consistent with God's grace that has been given to us. If your gift is prophecy, you should prophesy in proportion to your faith. If your gift is service, devote yourself to serving. If your gift is teaching, devote yourself to teaching. If your gift is encouragement, devote yourself to encouraging. The one giving should do it with no strings attached. The leader should lead with passion. The one showing mercy should be cheerful.

ANTHEM

O For a Song

Deborah Govenor

O for a song to praise my Lord, O for a heart to trust his word, a soul to bless his name; a voice his message to proclaim. O for a song to praise my king, for a melody to sing of him who died for me, to sing eternally. If sorrow finds me on my way, give me a song, I pray, to guide me through the darkest night and lead me onward to the light. If joy be mine, Lord, I pray, give me a song to sing that day to fill me with surprise, and lift my spirit to the skies. Throughout my life his praise I'll sing no matter what the years may bring; whatever path my feet have trod, I am content to walk with God. O for a heart to worship him, o for a faith that grows not dim, a hope when death draws nigh that I may dwell with him on high. (The scriptural basis for singing God's praise is abundant, found in numerous Psalms, Ephesians 5:19, Isaiah 12:6, and Zephaniah 3:17. Ephesians 5:19 ("address one another in psalms and hymns... making melody to the Lord"), Isaiah 12:6 ("Shout and sing for joy, O inhabitant of Zion"), and Zephaniah 3:17 all emphasizing joyful, heartfelt, and often "new" songs expressing God's greatness, faithfulness, and salvation, using instruments and voices as expressions of Spirit-filled worship.)

CHILDREN'S MOMENT

Lisa Voegeli

Following the Children's moments, children will follow an adult into the choir room for a short time of music. Afterwards, children ages 3-5 will be escorted by a Children's Church leader to Children's Church in the 2-3 year-old Sunday school room, where they may be picked up after the worship service. Older children will return to their parents.

Making Disciples of Jesus for the Transformation of the World

The congregation of Washington Street UMC praises and serves God from the heart of the city in ways that reach neighbors near and far. We welcome and affirm all who seek the love and mercy of Christ, regardless of race, creed, age, gender, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, or economic status. We honor traditions as rooted in our history, our expression of worship and our respect for theological curiosity. We nonetheless see vital change and ongoing renewal as essential for spiritual growth.
